recovery mission at ground zero from september 11 2001 through the end of operations on may 30 2002 while telling the story of his own struggle to make peace with all that he saw there on the morning of 9 11 the port authority police department was the first uniformed service to respond to the attack on the world trade center when the towers collapsed thirty seven of its officers were killed the largest loss of law enforcement officers in u s history that afternoon lieutenant william keegan began the work of recovery the fdny and nypd had the territory but keegan had the map pa cops could stand on top of six stories of debris and point to where a stairwell had been they used path tunnels to enter the pile from underneath closure includes many never before told stories including how keegan and his officers recovered 1 000 tons of gold and silver from a secret vault to keep the commodities exchange from crashing discovered what appeared to be a black box from one of the planes that hit the towers and helped raise the inspirational steel beam cross that has become the site s icon for nine brutal months the men at ground zero wrestled with 1 8 million tons of shattered concrete twisted steel body parts political pressure and their own grief closure tells the unforgettable story of their sacrifice and valor and how keegan led the smallest of all the uniformed services at the site to become the most valuable advocating for an integrated nonpartisan approach to the art of grappling this handbook focuses completely on the fundamental defensive concepts and principles of mixed martial arts brazilian jiu jitsu and submission fighting submission techniques are demonstrated in complementary positions including mount guard side control and back control but that has ever been published the japan times a comprehensive training manual to the basic free practice forms of kodokan judo the randori no kata the book provides essential instruction in the throwing and grappling kata nage no kata and katame no kata that every judo practitioner needs to master the authors are two of the world's top instructors donn f draeger and tadao otaki both were instructors at the kodokan judo institute in tokyo the headquarters of international judo which was founded by the creator of the martial art jigoro kano draeger considered by many to be the first non-japanese budo master was an authority on asian martial culture who held high ranks and teaching licenses in several martial arts he was a prolific writer and was the first non-japanese judo instructor at the kodokan otaki was not only a successful judo instructor but also a university professor who was widely praised for his research on the role of judo in education draeger and otaki based their text on jigoro kano's published and unpublished personal writings recapturing the original spirit and intent of the essential judo kata they are presented in the standard kodokan versions as refined by generations of practitioners richly illustrated with over 1 000 photos and drawings judo formal techniques offers complete step by step instructions for the roles of both training partners in addition to the core techniques of throwing and grappling it explains the important transitional movements as well as grips stances and postures first introduced as an olympic sport at the 1964 tokyo olympics judo is returning to its home city on the world stage at the 2020 olympics practiced by more than 20 million people worldwide judo is only expected to continue growing in popularity a new foreword by judo instructor neil ohlenkamp sheds light on the book's lasting importance as the classic kata bible for judo students and instructors alike and an indispensable resource for all martial arts practitioners far removed from other forms of combat grappling is the one on one embodiment of a physical altercation face to face only the grittiest fighter with the strongest fortitude dares to call himself a grappler the grappler's manifesto is the definitive instructional guide to this most brutal of all fighting styles a grappler chooses not to avoid his opponent or swiftly dispatch him at a distance but charges headlong into his adversary grinding him down until he collapses the grappler prevails in close quarter fights because of his indomitable spirit and unflinching willpower to become a true grappler requires technical acumen but also the conviction to transform into a dispassionate warrior who simply keeps moving forward until the opponent yields calling upon the experience of the most methodical ruthless stoic fighters of our generation the grappler's manifesto uses step by step color photographs and revealing narrative to illustrate exactly how the pros are able to flail their opponents on the mat and triumph over them in hand to hand combat if you've ever wanted to know how to destroy an opponent's willpower and force him to surrender you need this book field technicians and emergency response personnel are often faced with the dangers of flammable combustible and chemically unstable materials although there are numerous procedures
