giant is a short fantasy story for children by the Irish author Oscar Wilde. The story's plot revolves around a giant who builds a wall to keep children out of his garden but learns compassion from the innocence of the children. The short story contains significant religious imagery. The selfish giant owns a beautiful garden which has 12 peach trees and lovely fragrant flowers in which children love to play. After returning from the school, the giant put a notice board: trespassers will be prosecuted. The garden falls into perpetual winter. One day the giant is awakened by a linnet and discovers that spring has returned to the garden as the children have found a way in through a gap in the wall. It was first published in 1888 in the anthology The Happy Prince and Other Tales, which in addition to its title story also includes The Nightingale and the Rose, The Happy Prince, The Devoted Friend, and The Remarkable Rocket, a heart-warming tale of courage set against the backdrop of the Second World War about an abandoned village, a lifelong friendship, and one very adventurous cat.

Classic Morpurgo brilliance. Publishing news: Jaffy Brown is running along a street in London's East End when he comes face to face with an escaped circus animal plucked from the jaws of death by Mr Jamrach, explorer, entrepreneur, and collector of the world's strangest creatures. The two strike up a friendship before he knows it. Jaffy finds himself on board a ship bound for the Dutch East Indies on an unusual commission for Mr Jamrach. His journey, if he survives, it will push faith, love, and friendship to their utmost limits. An eye for an eye, it's very simple: you choose your homeland like a hyena picking and choosing where he steals his next meal from scavenger. Yes, you grovel to the feet of Mengistu and when his people spit at you and kick you from the bowl, you scuttle across the border scavenger as a violent civil war rages back home in Ethiopia. Teenager Alem and his father are in a bed and breakfast in Berkshire. It's his best holiday ever. The next morning his father is gone and has left a note explaining that he and his mother want to protect Alem from the war. This strange grey country of England is now his home on his own and in the hands of the social services and the Refugee Council. Alem lives from letter to letter, waiting to hear something from his father. Then he meets Car Obsessed Mustapha, the lovely out of your league Ruth, and dangerous Sweeney, three unexpected allies who spur him on in his fight to be seen as more than just the refugee boy. Lemn Sissay's remarkable stage adaptation of Benjamin Zephaniah's bestselling novel is published here in the Methuen Drama Student Edition series featuring commentary notes by Professor Lynette Goddard, Royal Holloway University of London, UK, that help the student unpack the play's themes, language, structure, and production history to date.

A gripping prizewinning novel about a girl surviving in a devastated world. Imagine that a few years from now England is covered by water and Norwich is an island. Zoe left behind in the confusion when her parents escaped survives there as best she can alone and desperate among marauding gangs she manages to dig a derelict boat out of the mud and gets away to Eels Island. But Eels Island, whose raggle taggle inhabitants are dominated by the strange boy Dooby, is full of danger too. The belief that she will one day find her parents spurs Zoe on to a dramatic escape. In a story of courage and determination that is handled with warmth and humanity, this book was the winner of the Branford Boase Award 2001 and marked the start of author Marcus Sedgwick's multi-award-winning career.
